ATTACHMENT A

I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and have knowledge of the following facts:

1. On or about 01/16/2019, United Airlines Flight 1838 departed Mexico City, Mexico (MX) enroute to Houston, Texas (TX). At approximately 6:40 p.m., the aforementioned flight was diverted to McAllen International Airport (MFE), after reports that a male passenger physically assaulted another passenger as well as a member of the flight crew.
2. Passenger Miguel Angel Soto Jr. (SOTO), date of birth 03/15/1990, made physical contact with a female passenger by kicking her multiple times with his foot. At such time, the flight crew was made aware of the incident and intervened.
3. In operation of her duties as a member of the crew, a flight attendant instructed SOTO to remain in his seat. SOTO failed to comply with the commands of the flight attendant and physically struck the flight attendant with his arm.
4. Subsequent to making contact with the flight attendant, SOTO was subdued by multiple passengers who held him down. A federal agent, also aboard the aircraft, intervened and assisted in taking SOTO into custody. The agent identified himself to SOTO as a federal agent and continued to give commands to SOTO. SOTO refused to comply with the agent's commands and continued to resist. The agent and aforementioned passengers were ultimately able to restrain SOTO until the aircraft landed at MFE without further incident at approximately 6:50 p.m. CST.
